3. School Leadership Reports
   a. Ms. Kruger talked about how she has implemented standing staff meetings with the teachers at the end of the school day. During this time the teachers do a "shout out" or reply a want or need. This has gone over well with the teachers and Ms. Kruger feels has improved the staff morale. Ms. Kruger than gave a few shout outs of her own.

4. Partner Message
   a. Matt Rado—CMSD has sent draft contract modifications out to all schools for review. One of the modifications has changes due to state law regarding attendance and achievement gap closure. The other modification does not pertain to NWIS. Mr. Rado also explained that the dissemination of Annual Reports has been put on hold due to the draft contract modifications being sent out. Also, spring assurances will be scheduled within the next few weeks.
   b. Dr. Jeff Jarosck—ESCLEW sent out their monthly newsletter and one of the articles Dr. Jarosck thought may be of interest to the board was the statutory responsibility of board members. He briefly talked about the call between ESCLEW finance and TIS treasurer to review finances and all looked good. Dr. Jarosck completed a SPED review in last month and there were no findings.
   c. Lori Wood—ODE conducted a site visit last month and reviewed the improvement plan with Ms. Bartley, LIS Principal. Everything seems to be on track. Spring assurances will be scheduled sometime in late February early March.

5. Finance
   a. Mr. Mangen reviewed December 2018 financials and according to the CMSD financial indicators are schools are going well financially. The draft FY 20 budgets and the 5-year forecast will be available for board review within the next month and are set to be fully approved in May.

   Motion to approve December Financials:
