6. Friends of Intergenerational School
   Terri Manns
   a. Ms. Manns spoke on the financials of IGCLe. She spoke about where the IGs as a whole were in terms of donors before BCS, while with BCS, and where we are now. Ms. Manns touched on the branding of the model and why our website is important. She gave the board talking points if they were to talk to a potential funder or family. Ms. Manns also presented the new fundraising feature on the website.
      i. Discussion occurred around the use of social media to market the IGs. Some board members asked about the IG presence on Twitter and Facebook and why IGCLe is focusing more on the website. Ms. Manns explained the website is better for fundraising.

7. Education and Enrollment
   Molly Toussant
   a. Ms. Toussant explained the proposed change to the Enrollment Policy to extend the early enrollment period for all three schools and to prioritize enrollment for Cleveland residents. Ms. Toussant went on to explain the reasons behind the proposed change.
      i. Discussion occurred regarding this topic and the possibility of lost enrollment and if this policy will encourage or discourage diversity within the schools.
